ΧΡΙΣΤΟΣ ΒΟΚΚΡΕC! The Lord is Risen! Have You ?

"Let the risen Jesus enter your life; welcome him as a friend, with trust. He is life." (Pope Francis)

Pope Francis exhorts us in this Easter Season, "Let the risen Jesus enter your life; welcome him as a friend, with trust. He is life." Our Risen Lord conquered death for all time and restored hope to the world. This hope isn't over in a day or season. We are called to let Jesus truly enter into the fullness of our lives. Through the daily prayer, scripture reflection, Mass and the practice of the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, we can deepen our friendship with Jesus and his faith family, the Church.

To enjoy redemption from our sins, we must carry the Cross of Jesus in our daily duties assured of the victory of Easter. Jesus chose to redeem us, not by a triumphant burst of human power, but by submitting to the Will of His Father undergoing torture and death by crucifixion. We too must be willing to suffer and die to our own self will and strive to obey the will of our heavenly Father who guarantees us the grace and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Saint Paul struggled to imitate Christ throughout his life and at the end proclaimed: "I no longer live, but Christ lives in me." Because we carry within our own person the "dying and rising of Jesus", as disciples of the Risen Lord, we can endure the pain to gain the friendship of Jesus.

This Easter, may your joys be doubled, your sorrows divided and your blessings multiplied as we rejoice the Risen Jesus who partners with us His divine love, mercy and peace.

Be assured that I remember you in my daily prayers, masses and in my practice of the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. Please pray for me, my family and parish family as we welcome Jesus, our friend, in one another as we participate in the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist. The Lord is risen! Let us glorify Him by our life of charity! A Blessed Easter of Love and Life , Fr. Myron

EASTER PASTORAL OF THE UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC HIERARCHY OF THE U.S.A. TO OUR CLERGY, HIEROMONKS AND BROTHERS, RELIGIOUS SISTERS, SEMINARIANS AND BELOVED FAITHFUL

Christ is Risen! Indeed He is Risen!

“Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni,” which means Teacher. Jesus said to her, “Stop holding on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and tell them, ‘I am going to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary of Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord,” and what he told her.” John 20:16-20

Today, we share a joy, a joy of wonder, a joy that comes from within, because Christ is Risen! Today, we share the same joy of the disciples to whom Mary Magdalene had brought the Good News that Jesus Christ is risen, and she has seen Him.

This joy of resurrection starts from a personal encounter with risen Christ. What does it take for Mary Magdalene’s tears to give way to Easter joy? Nothing less than meeting the risen Christ. Meeting the risen Savior Himself! Even this is not so straightforward. Jesus appears to her, but Mary doesn’t recognize Him. But then, Jesus calls her name, Mary. She turns, and now when she looks; her world is transformed. Before her is no gardener, but the resurrected Christ, alive and free from death. Around her is no tomb of lifeless rock, but the living Savior who calls her out of darkness and into a marvelous light. After encountering the risen Jesus Mary Magdalene obeys the Lord’s command to tell the news of the resurrection to the disciples.

The same joy is experienced by the disciples on the road to Emmaus. This personal encounter with the risen Lord gives them courage and strength to run back to the disciples and tell them what happened on the way and how they recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

On Easter morning what we celebrate is that Christ has overcome sin and evil and death. There is forgiveness and hope and new life even from the very rock bottom of suffering and despair. And so, the Easter gospel is not only about life from death, but also about this encounter Mary has with the resurrected Christ. Jesus is raised, but then He also meets us. And not merely as a dazzling figure we do not recognize, Jesus meets us – calls our name, opens our eyes, and invites us to see.

At the Resurrection Matins we sing: “Let us rise at early dawn and bring to our Master a hymn instead of myrrh, and we shall see Christ the Sun of righteousness Who enlightens the life of all.” (Resurrection Matins, Ode 5).

The risen Christ wants us to experience the joy of encountering Him and living for Christ and not for self—the joy of being liberated from the sins which trap us in self-centeredness and discover the blessing of Christ’s self-giving love. No matter what may be happening in our lives, we can still experience spiritual joy through the love of God and living the way God made us to live, which is for self-giving love.

The Easter gospel is not just about new life, but new life that comes to us. Not just Christ raised from the dead, but the risen Christ meeting us and calling our names. Easter is an encounter, a call and a summons. Go and tell what you have seen and heard. Christ is alive, and more than that He has sought us out and called us by name. Whatever our doubts and our fears, whatever our failures and betrayals, whatever the wounds we try to protect – today is a new day. We are all to become witnesses of the Resurrection of Jesus. We are called to bring that ‘ray’ of the light of the Resurrection into the various human situations: into those happy ones, rendering them more beautiful, and into those sorrowful situations, bringing serenity and hope.”

In this Year of Mercy, Pope Francis encourages us “to experience the opening of our hearts to those living on the outermost fringes of society” and to “keep alive the desire to know how to welcome the numerous signs of the tenderness which God offers to the whole world and, above all, to those who suffer, who are alone and abandoned, without hope of being pardoned or feeling the Father’s love” (Misericordiae Vultus, Pope Francis).

We know how the poor need help. We know how the sick need healing, how the oppressed need justice, how the grieving need comfort. We know how the spiritual life needs exercise, with daily prayer, meditation, study, and the companionship of kindred, seeking souls. Being people of the resurrection, graced with this knowledge, it is our calling to talk to people on the road and announce the Good News of the risen Christ to them. During this period of contemplating Christ’s mercy, we are reminded that Jesus not only preached mercy, but He put into action works of mercy as He assisted the poor, consoled the lonely and outcast, relieved suffering and affliction and taught the ignorant. No one person can give what they do not have, thus each one of us must know Christ personally. We need to know Him personally so that we can go out and proclaim Him to every person we encounter.

Today is our time of joy and renewed evangelical spirit to proclaim the Good News of the risen Christ to others. Our parish communities should become places to encounter the living Christ! This is what Christ is inviting us to do! This is the day that Lord has made, let us exalt and rejoice in it. This is the calling to each of us, so we may bring this joy of encountering, the risen Christ to others. Will we be able to share this personal encounter with the risen Christ with our families, our friends, and people we encounter in our daily lives? Let us experience this Easter morning joy and let us radiate this joy in our lives. Let the Mercy of Christ shine in our lives and deeds!

Our fervent prayer is that our Resurrected and Living Lord may bestow his peace and grace upon you and your loved ones, upon all our brothers and sisters scattered throughout the world!

Living with Christ – Melkite Greek- Catholic Eparchy of Newton- Office of Educational Services

Holy Pascha

“Christ is risen!” – This cry is heard over and over in Eastern Churches throughout the world today. It is the “Feast of Feasts,” the “Season of Seasons.” Pascha is the most important festival in the Church year because it is the feast that says, “Christ is alive – He is there for you today!” As St Paul says, “If Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins!” (1 Cor15:17).

The effect of Christ’s resurrection is dramatized in our Church by the hajme service before the Paschal Liturgy. The priest knocks on the church doors, saying repeatedly: “Be lifted up, O eternal gates, and the King of Glory shall enter in!” The doors are opened and we enter, following him into the brightly adorned church.

The risen Christ has entered into heavenly glory with His human nature (and, therefore, with ours). We have access through Him to that communion with God which was lost in the beginning. We are on a journey meant to lead us to Theosis, when “we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is” (1 John 3:2).

This radiant festival is observed by feasting instead of fasting. We especially enjoy those foods not eaten during the Great Fast: meat (especially the Paschal lamb), dairy (especially Easter eggs), buttery sweets and the like. Invite guests to join in the feast today. Visit family members or bring shut-ins some holiday treats. “Indeed He is risen!”

The celebration of Pascha continues throughout the coming weeks. Make it the “Bright Week” it is in our Church by serving holiday fare daily. Have an Easter egg each day and exchange the Paschal greeting. Some people visit the graves of their loved ones this week – the cemetery too rejoices in the resurrection of Christ.

“Christ is risen! – Indeed He is risen!”

Monday in Bright Week

Every day this week our Church’s services take on the character of Pascha. The usual psalms and hymns are replaced by resurrection hymns. Each day this week we will reflect on one of them and add it to our evening prayer.

Repeated several times in each service is the troparion: “Christ is risen from the dead, and by His death He has trampled upon Death and has given life to those who were in the tombs.” It raises two questions for you to think about and discuss.

What does it mean that Christ “has trampled upon Death?” To trample is to crush underfoot, to completely defeat. Let little ones stamp their feet when singing these words and they will quickly understand their meaning. You may want to remind them that trampling sin and death is ok; trampling one another is not!

What is “Death?” Not the fact of physical death but the power of Death to keep us eternally captive. Christ did not eliminate death, but robbed it of its power. It can no longer enslave the person who believes in eternal life with Christ.

“Christ is risen! – Indeed He is risen!”

Tuesday in Bright Week

Today’s prayer is called a hypakoe, or responsorial hymn. It is based on the Gospel story of the myrrh-bearing women who came to the tomb to anoint the body of Jesus:

Mary and her companions went forth before dawn. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb and heard the angel say,

“Why do you seek Him as a man among the dead when He is in eternal splendor? Behold, the shroud is laid aside. Hasten and proclaim to the world that the Lord is risen and has put Death to death, for He is the Son of God, the Savior of mankind.”

Discuss “the shroud” mentioned in this hymn. In most countries even today a dead person is wrapped in a shroud for burial: a long sheet of cloth that covers them completely. In the Middle East Christians often use shrouds imprinted with an icon of the burial of Christ.

“Christ is risen! – Indeed He is risen!”

Wednesday in Bright Week

Today our prayer is the kontakion of Pascha, which we will be hearing often during the next forty days. Our Paschal season extends beyond Bright Week to the feast of the Ascension of the Lord, forty days after Pascha.

The kondakion reads: “Though You went down in the tomb, O Immortal One, You overthrew the power of Hades and rose victorious, O Christ God. You greeted the ointment-bearing women, saying ‘Rejoice!’ You gave peace to Your apostles and to those who had fallen, resurrection!’”

Five separate events are mentioned in this hymn:

- 1 – The Lord’s burial (“Though You went down in the tomb...”). This is described in Matthew 27:57-61.
- 2 – His victory over Death (“You overthrew the power...”). This was seen by no human eye and cannot be described. It is represented symbolically in the resurrection icon.
- 3 – His greeting the women. Find this in Matthew 28:8, 9.
- 4 – Read how the Lord gave peace to His apostles in John 20:19-30.
- 5 – As we say in the creed, we are waiting “for the resurrection of the dead (the fallen) and the life of the world to come.”

“Christ is risen! – Indeed He is risen!”

Thursday in Bright Week

Being God You were present in the tomb by Your body and yet in Hades by Your soul, in Paradise with the thief, and on the throne, O Christ, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, filling all things but encompassed by none.

Friday in Bright Week

O Christ, Your tomb – the fount of our resurrection – is indeed a giver of life more splendid than Paradise and more radiant than any royal chamber.

Saturday in Bright Week

Shine, shine, O new Jerusalem, for the glory of the Lord has shone upon you. Rejoice and be glad, O Sion. And you, O pure one, O Theotokos, exult in the resurrection of your Son

March 27: The Mercy of the Eucharist prepared by Mr. Peter Yaremko

In many churches of the Eastern rites, it’s traditional for the congregation to gather outside the sealed church on Easter morning, symbolizing Christ’s time in the tomb. The priest, with his hand cross, knocks three times on the main door and it is thrown open. The people enter, as if entering Christ’s kingdom, to adore their risen savior in the Eucharist.

The ritual reminds us of the opening of the Holy Door of St. Peter’s Basilica that began this Jubilee Year of Mercy—illustrating the idea that, during the Jubilee, the faithful are offered what Pope Francis called an “extraordinary pathway” towards salvation.

In an important way, the message of Easter is forever linked to the message of the Last Supper.

At the Last Supper, Jesus transformed bread and wine into his body and blood. In his resurrection, the risen Christ gives himself to us both in the fullness of his divinity and in his glorified humanity.

As Pope Francis suggests: “In the Eucharist we feel this belonging to the Church, to the People of God, to the Body of God, to Jesus Christ. We will never completely grasp the value and the richness of it.”

Our prayer today: Merciful Jesus, we pray to become more and more worthy of the gift of your body and blood in the Holy Eucharist.
